Target is a container. This container has another container inside of it. The target is fashioned of wood, gold and silver. The target is similar in shape to (AOL) a coffin, and is decorated with seraphim (see sketch pg. 16).

This target is located somewhere in the Middle East as the language spoken by individuals present seemed to be Arabic. Visuals of surrounding buildings indicated the presence of Mosque Domes (?), (see page 12). Individuals in the area were clothed in virtually all white, had black hair and dark eyes -- one figure I homed in on wore a moustache.

The target is hidden -- underground, dark and wet were all aspects of the location of the target.

The purpose of the target is to bring a people together (see page 16). It has something to do with ceremony, memory, homage, the resurrection. There is an aspect of spirituality, information, lessons and historical knowledge far beyond what we now know.

The target is protected by entities (see page 14) and can only be opened (now) by those who are authorized to do so -- this container will not/cannot be opened until the time is deemed correct. Once it is time to open the container -- the mechanics of the lock system will be found to be fairly simple. Individuals opening the container by prying or striking are destroyed by the container's protectors (see page 17) through the use of a power unknown to us.
